Summary:

Hope Street Restoration is a private for-profit company committed to life restoration for homeless people by employing them to restore houses. Hope Street Restoration partners with Hope Street Project to identify and employ homeless people who are looking for work. We set a high standard for clean and sober living. We support treatment of mental illness and addiction. Our team supplies labor to building trades to reduce costs and provide labor support where there are shortages of assistants. The final product is beautifully restored homes with unique, artistic touches that amaze the senses and welcome the new owners. Our work provides a sense of pride and accomplishment for our team and addresses the housing crisis in northeast Washington, one restored home at a time.

Who Wins:

City: Beautified homes

Community Members: Increased affordable housing
