DISCLAIMER

The working principles of Hope Street Restoration are the following:

- We give homeless people the chance to experience high quality work.
- We create beautiful, restored homes from unlivable space.
- We address the housing crisis in northeast Washington.
- We create jobs in trades where there is a shortage.
- We teach life skills in leadership, entrepreneurship, business, art, building trades.
- We give regular reports to Hope Street Project, our sponsors, and our community of our progress.
- We give back to Hope Street and our community through volunteer service and financial support.
- We speak to our community about the injustice and suffering in living without shelter.
- We partner with like-minded tradesmen who are committed to the restoration of people.

The team rules are the following:

- Show up on time and ready to work.
- Come to work clean and sober.
- Maintain a kind and compassionate workplace. Speak and act with dignity toward all. (Swearing on this job is not acceptable. Please do your best to abstain from using profane and vulgar words.)
- Submit to urine drug screens and breathalyzer testing when asked or deemed necessary.
- Work safely. No horseplay. Safety is a top priority. Violations will be dealt with by counseling, written warnings, unpaid leave, or dismissal, depending on the level of concern.
- Give back. All employees will be encouraged to volunteer one day a week for Hope Street Project.
- Attend support groups or treatment when appropriate.
